

TO: James App, City Manager
FROM: Robert A. Lata, Community Development Director
SUBJECT: Lease for Modular Building at Oak Park Senior Housing
DATE: June 17, 2003

NEEDS: For the City Council to consider a Lease Agreement with the Housing Authority of the City of Paso Robles regarding the use of a City-owned modular building Oak Park Public Housing.

- FACTS:
1. The Housing Authority had allowed a variety of social services organizations to use one of the 148 dwelling units at Oak Park Public Housing as an office.
 2. In late 2002, the Housing Authority directed that the social services organizations find other quarters so that the dwelling unit might again be used as a residence. The Housing Authority suggested that the organizations use the George Stephan (recreation) Center during the daytime, when the children were in school.
 3. For a variety of reasons, the George Stephan Center could not be used both for recreation programs and as offices for the social service organizations.
 4. In early 2003, with the completion of the Public Safety Center, the modular building that had housed the Emergency Services Department offices was vacated. To enable the dwelling unit to again be used as a residence, the City moved the modular to Oak Park Public Housing and set it up for use as an office for the social services organizations.
 5. Attached is an agreement that allows the Housing Authority to lease the City's modular building for a period of 50 years for the cost of $1.00 per year.
 6. The Board of Commissioners for the Housing Authority is scheduled to review the proposed lease agreement at its meeting of June 10, 2003. An oral report of the Board's action will be made to the City Council at its June 17 meeting.

ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION:

The social service organizations provide important services to the residents of Oak Park, and office space is needed to facilitate those services. The City does not have any other use for the modular building. Its lease by the Housing Authority helps keep all of the 148 dwelling units available for residences. The lease would appear to be consistent with Program 1.10 of the Housing Element, which calls for the City to work with the Housing Authority to improve the Oak Park area.

REFERENCE: Housing Element

FISCAL

IMPACT: None; the modular unit is not needed for City use.

OPTIONS: That the City Council take one of the following options:

- a. Adopt Resolution No. 03-xx approving a 50-year lease of a City-owned modular building at Oak Park Public Housing to the Housing Authority of the City of Paso Robles for use as an office for social service organizations.
- b. Amend, modify, or reject the above option.

Landlord shall not be in default hereunder nor have any liability to Lessee, nor shall Lessee have any right to terminate this Lease or claim an offset against or reduction in rent payable hereunder, due to any damage, annoyance or inconvenience resulting from any such inspections, repairs, alterations, additions or improvements. Lessee shall fully cooperate with Landlord and Landlord's agents or contractors in carrying out any such inspections, repairs, alterations, additions or improvements.

Any and all fixtures, furnishings, equipment and other personal property placed in, on or about the Property by Lessee shall be the Personal Property of Lessee during the term of this Lease, subject to the rights of the Landlord as set forth in this Lease.

Lessee shall repair all damage caused by any such removal and shall leave the Property in a clean and neat condition.

Any Personal Property not removed by Lessee within thirty (30) days following expiration of the term of this Lease shall be deemed to be abandoned by Lessee and shall, without compensation to Lessee, then become Landlord's property, free and clear of all claims to or against them by Lessee or any other person.

12. Maintenance. Lessee shall, at its sole cost and expense, keep and maintain the Property, every part thereof, every improvement and fixture thereon, and every utility structure, piping, or wiring necessary thereto in good, working and sanitary order, condition and repair, reasonable wear and tear and damage by casualty not caused by the negligence of Lessee or its agents, contractors or employees excepted.

13. Utilities. Lessee shall be solely responsible for applying to the appropriate utility service provider to ensure utility service is provided to the Property, as needed by Lessee. Lessee shall subscribe to garbage service consistent with the requirements of the City's Municipal Code. Lessee shall, at its sole cost and expense, pay for the consumption of all utilities used at or on the Property, including without limitation any and all electric, gas, telephone, sewer, water, garbage and other services and utilities necessary for the operation of the Property and the improvements located thereon.

Lessee acknowledges that any one or more such services may be suspended by reason of accident or of repairs, alterations, or improvements necessary to be made, or by strikes or lockouts, or by reason of operation of law, or other causes beyond the reasonable control of Landlord. Lessee shall have no right to any off-set or reduction in rent nor shall Landlord have any liability for any such interruption or suspension of such services.

14. Compliance with Governmental Rules and Regulations.

A. Lessee shall, at its sole cost and expense, comply with all requirements of all municipal, state, and federal authorities now in force, or which may hereafter be in force, pertaining to the Property, purposes, and operations, and shall faithfully observe in the use of the Property and in the conduct of its operations all the municipal, state and federal statutes now in force or which may hereafter be in force. Lessee shall be responsible for determining whether this Lease, or the work to be performed on the Property will require the payment of prevailing wages for such work, and, if so, shall comply with all applicable requirements.

B. Lessee shall conduct its business in accordance with the requirements of the American with Disabilities Act of 1990 (the "Act") and with all other applicable statutes, rules, regulations and ordinances relating to handicapped accessibility. Any renovations, alterations and improvements to be undertaken by Lessee on the Property, including those provided for under Section 12 of this Lease, shall be performed in compliance with the applicable provisions of the Act and with all other applicable statutes, rules, regulations and ordinances relating to handicapped accessibility.

C. Landlord shall have the right to make such other rules and regulations as in the reasonable judgment of Landlord may from time to time be necessary for the safety, appearance, care and cleanliness of the Property and the surrounding neighborhood, the safety and well being of the users of the Property, and for the preservation of good order therein.

15. Nondiscrimination.

A. During the term of this Lease, Lessee agrees as follows:

1. Lessee shall not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, color, creed, religion, sex, age, handicap, medical condition, sexual preference, marital status, ancestry or national origin. Lessee shall, in all solicitations or advertisements for employees placed by or on behalf of Lessee, state that all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, age, handicap, medical condition, sexual preference, marital status, ancestry or national origin.

2. There shall be no discrimination against or segregation of any person or group of persons on account of race, color, creed, religion, sex, age, handicap, medical condition, sexual preference, marital status, ancestry or national origin in the sale, lease, sublease, transfer, use, occupancy, tenure or enjoyment of the Property, or any part thereof, and the Lessee itself, or any person claiming under or through it, shall not establish or permit any such practice of discrimination or segregation with reference to the selection, location, number, use or occupancy of tenants, lessees, subtenants, sublessees or vendees of the Property, or any part thereof.

3. Lessee shall refrain from restricting the rental, sale or lease of the Property, or any portion thereof, on the basis of race, color, creed, religion, sex, age, handicap, medical condition, sexual preference, marital status, ancestry or national origin of any person.

16. Taxes and Assessments. Lessee recognizes and understands that this Lease may create a possessory interest subject to property taxes levied on such interest.

Lessee agrees to pay, as and when due, all lawful taxes, assessments, fees or charges from which it is not exempt, which at any time may be levied by the state, county, Landlord or any tax or assessment levying body upon any interest in this Lease or on any possessory right which Lessee may have in or to the property, or improvements or fixtures thereon, by reason of its use or occupancy thereof or otherwise, as well as all taxes, assessments, fees, and charges on goods, merchandise, fixtures, appliances, and equipment used by it, or related to its operations or the hiring and employment of agents and employees, provided or used by it, in, about, or for the operation and maintenance of the Property.

17. Liens. Lessee shall keep the Property free from any liens arising out of any work performed, materials furnished, or obligations incurred by Lessee. Lessee shall give Landlord no less than ten (10) days advance written notice of commencement of any work of improvement on the Property. Landlord shall be entitled to enter the Property for the purpose of posting notices of nonresponsibility.

18. Indemnity. Lessee agrees that Landlord shall not be liable for and hereby releases Landlord from (i) any injury to Lessee's business or any loss of income therefrom or for damage to any machinery or equipment or other property of Lessee, Lessee's employees, invitees, customers, or any other person in or about the Property; (ii) the loss of or damage to any property of Lessee by theft or otherwise; or (iii) any injury or damage to persons or property resulting from fire, steam, electricity, gas, water, rain or snow, or from the breakage, leakage, obstruction or other defects of pipes, sprinklers, wires, appliances, plumbing, air conditioning or HVAC systems or lighting fixtures, or from any other cause whatsoever (whether similar or dissimilar to those above specified), whether the same damage or injury result from conditions arising in the Property, or at or on portions of the building or the Property, or from other sources or places, except to the extent caused by Landlord's intentional misconduct or gross negligence. Landlord shall not be liable for any damages arising from any act or neglect of any other tenant, if any, of the Property. This waiver, release and indemnification does not apply to claims or damages arising from any act or neglect of any other tenant or person not the agent or any person doing business with Lessee.

Lessee shall indemnify and hold harmless the Landlord, its officers, officials, directors, employees, agents, and volunteers from and against any and all claims, damages, losses and expenses, including attorneys fees arising out of the occupancy of the Property described herein, caused in whole or in part by any negligent act or omission of the Lessee, any sublessee, anyone directly or indirectly employed by any of them or anyone for whose acts any of them may be liable, except where caused by the active negligence, sole negligence or willful misconduct of the Landlord.

Landlord and Lessee each waives any and all rights of recovery against the other or against the directors, officers, employees, agents and representatives of the other, for loss of or damage to such waiving party or its property or the property of others under its control, where such loss or damage is insured against under any insurance policy in force at the time of such loss or damage. Landlord and Lessee shall, upon obtaining the policies of insurance required hereunder, give notice to the insurance carriers that the foregoing mutual waiver of subrogation is contained in this Lease.

It is understood that any indemnification obligation of Lessee under this Lease shall not be limited in any way by any limitation on the amount or type of damages, compensation or benefits payable by or for Lessee under workers' or workmen's compensation acts, disability benefit acts or other employee benefits acts.

19. Insolvency and Bankruptcy. In the event of either a) the appointment of a receiver to take possession of all or substantially all of the assets of Lessee, or b) a general assignment by Lessee for the benefit of creditors, or c) any action taken or suffered by Lessee under any insolvency or bankruptcy act, or d) any liquidation or other cessation of Lessee's corporation or business, this Lease shall terminate immediately. Landlord shall have the right of immediate possession of the Property and any improvements or fixtures thereon. Title of any Personal Property of Lessee remaining on the Property after thirty (30) days shall be deemed to pass to Landlord.

20. Insurance. Lessee shall procure and maintain during the terms of this Lease, at its sole cost and expense, insurance against claims for injuries to persons or damages to property which may arise from or in connection with Lessee's operation and use of the Property. The cost of such insurance shall be borne by the Lessee.

3. Property Insurance: Full replacement cost with no coinsurance penalty provision for tenant improvements and betterments, Landlord's buildings, structures, fixtures, equipment and furniture.

C. Deductibles and Self-Insured Retentions. Any deductibles or self-insured retentions must be declared to and approved by the Landlord. At the option of the Landlord, either: the insurer shall reduce or eliminate such deductibles or self-insured retentions as respects the Landlord, its officers, officials, employees and volunteers; or the Lessee shall procure a bond or other acceptable security guaranteeing payment of losses and related investigations, claim administration and defense expenses.

D. Other Insurance Provisions.

1. The general liability policy is to contain, or be endorsed to contain, the following provisions:

a. Landlord, its officers, officials, employees and volunteers are to be covered as insureds as respects: liability arising out of property owned, occupied or used by Lessee. The coverage shall contain no special limitations on the scope of protection afforded to the Landlord, its officers, officials, employees or volunteers.

b. The Lessee's insurance coverage shall be primary insurance as respects the Landlord, its officers, officials, employees and volunteers. Any insurance or self-insurance maintained by the Landlord, its officers, officials, employees or volunteers shall be excess of the Lessee's insurance and shall not contribute with it.

F. Verification of Coverage. Lessee shall furnish the Landlord with original endorsements effecting coverage required by this clause. The endorsements are to be signed by a person authorized by that insurer to bind coverage on its behalf. The endorsements are to be forms provided by the Landlord. All endorsements are to be received and approved by the Landlord before occupancy commences. As an alternative to the Landlord's forms, the Lessee's insurer may provide complete, certified copies of all required insurance policies, including endorsements effecting the coverage required by these specifications.

G. Subcontractors. Lessee shall include all subcontractors as insureds under its policies or shall furnish or cause to be furnished separate certificates and endorsements for each contractor. All coverages for subcontractors shall be subject to all of the requirements stated herein.

21. Repairs. Lessee shall, at Lessee's own expense, keep the Property and each part thereof in good order, condition and repair during the term of this Lease. Lessee shall give to Landlord prompt written notice of any damage to, or defective conditions in, any part or appurtenance of the Property's plumbing, electrical, heating, air-conditioning or other systems serving, located in, or passing through the Property. If any damage results from any act or neglect of Lessee or its agents, contractors or employees, Landlord may, at Landlord's option, repair such damage and Lessee shall promptly thereupon pay to Landlord the total cost of such repair. Any repairs made to the Property by Lessee shall be subject to the requirements set forth in Section 11 of this Lease, as applicable.

22. Destruction of the Property.

A. In the event of damage to or destruction of the Property caused by fire or other casualty, or any such damage or destruction to the Property or the facilities necessary to provide services and normal access to the property, Lessee shall undertake to make repairs and restorations with reasonable diligence, unless this Lease has been terminated as hereinafter provided. In the event (i) the damage is of such nature or extent that, in Lessee's reasonable judgment, more than one hundred twenty (120) days would be required (with normal work crews and hours) to repair and restore the part of the Property which has been damaged, or (ii) the Property is so damaged that, in Lessee's reasonable judgment, it is uneconomical to restore or repair the Property or portion thereof damaged, or (iii) less than eighteen (18) months then remain in the current term of this Lease, or (iv) insurance proceeds are not available or insurance proceeds that are available for the Property are insufficient to repair or rebuild the damage, or (v) any mortgagee shall not permit the application of adequate insurance proceeds for repair or restoration, either Lessee or Landlord shall, within ninety (90) days after any such damage or destruction, have the right to terminate this Lease by written notice to the other party, as of the date specified in such notice, which termination date shall be no later than thirty (30) days after the date of such notice. Rent shall be adjusted proportionately as of the date of the termination and Lessee shall promptly vacate the Property; provided that prior to any such vacation, Lessee shall take such actions as are necessary to ensure that the damaged or destroyed portions of the improvements remaining on the Property shall be left in a safe condition.

B. Provided this Lease is not terminated and is otherwise in full force and effect, Lessee shall proceed diligently to restore the Property to substantially its condition prior to the occurrence of the damage, subject to any delay due to reasons beyond Lessee's control.

C. During the period when Lessee shall be deprived of possession of the Property by reason of such damage of the Property is, in Landlord's judgment, rendered untenable, Lessee's obligation to pay rent shall abate in proportion to the area of the Property not usable.

23. Assignment and Subletting.

A. Lessee shall not, without Landlord's prior written consent, (i) assign, convey, mortgage, pledge, encumber or otherwise transfer, (whether voluntarily or otherwise) this Lease or any interest under it; (ii) allow any transfer of or any lien upon Lessee's interest by operation of law; (iii) sublet the Property or any part thereof; or (iv) permit the use or occupancy of the Property or any part thereof by anyone other than Lessee and its employees.

B. Lessee's request for consent to any sublet or assignment shall be in writing and shall contain the name, address, and description of the business of the proposed assignee or subtenant, its most recent financial statement and other evidence of financial responsibility, its intended use of the Property, and the terms and conditions of the proposed assignment or subletting.

C. For purposes of this Section 23, any transfer or change in control of Lessee by operation of law or otherwise shall be deemed an assignment hereunder, including, without limitation, any merger, consolidation, dissolution or any change in more than 30% of the interests of Lessee, whether in a single transaction or a series of related transactions.

D. If, with the consent of the Landlord, this Lease is assigned or if the Property or any part thereof is sublet or occupied by anybody other than Lessee, Landlord may, after default by Lessee, collect rent from the assignee, subtenant, or occupant, and apply the net amount collected to the rent to be paid by Lessee hereunder. If Landlord consents to any such subletting or assignment, it shall nevertheless be a condition to the effectiveness thereof that a fully executed copy of the sublease or assignment be furnished to Landlord and that any assignee assumes in writing all obligations of Lessee hereunder. No consent to any assignment, subletting or occupancy shall be deemed a waiver of any of Lessee's covenants contained in this Lease nor the acceptance of the assignee, subtenant or occupant as Lessee, nor a release of lessee from further performance of any covenants and obligations under this Lease, unless otherwise agreed to by Landlord.

E. Any consent given by Landlord to an assignment or subletting of this Lease shall not constitute a waiver of the necessity of such consent to any subsequent assignment or subletting.

F. Should Landlord consent to an assignment or sublease of the Property, all rent received by Lessee from its subtenants in excess of the rent payable by Lessee to Landlord under this Lease shall be paid to Landlord, and all sums to be paid by an assignee to Lessee in consideration of the assignment of this Lease shall be paid to Landlord, unless otherwise agreed to in writing by Landlord.

G. If Lessee requests Landlord to consent to a proposed assignment or subletting, Lessee shall pay to Landlord, whether or not consent is ultimately given, Landlord's reasonable attorneys' fees incurred in connection with each such request.

24. Condition of Premises. Landlord represents that, to the best of its knowledge, there are no existing hazardous substances located upon the Property [with the exception of asbestos and lead paint]. Lessee agrees to accept the Property, including the land and the buildings and improvements thereon, in an "as is" and in its present condition. No promise of Landlord to alter, remodel, repair or improve the Property, or any of the improvements located thereon, and no representation respecting the condition of the Property or the improvements thereon, have been made by Landlord to Lessee, other than as is specifically set forth in this Lease or in a specific work letter agreement signed by Landlord and Lessee.

Except with respect to a termination resulting from damage or destruction, which shall be governed by Section 22, at the termination of this Lease, Lessee shall return and surrender the Property in as good condition as when Lessee took possession, ordinary wear and tear and loss by fire or other casualty not caused by the negligence of Lessee or its agents, contractors or employees excepted. If Lessee fails to comply with the previous sentence, Landlord may restore the Property to the condition the Property was in when Lessee took possession, and Lessee shall pay the cost thereof on demand.

25. Eminent Domain. In the event that title to the entire Property shall be lawfully condemned or taken in any manner for any public or quasi-public use or conveyed in lieu of condemnation, this Lease shall automatically terminate as of the date possession is required to be delivered to the condemnor. In the event that only a portion of the Property is taken and the Property is thereby rendered unsuitable for the conduct of Lessee's business, either party may terminate this Lease as of the date when possession of the portion of the Property so taken is delivered to the condemning authority. In the event of any taking, Landlord shall be entitled to receive the entire amount of any award relating to the Property, including all real property improvements thereon, and Lessee shall be entitled to an award to recover damages resulting from the taking of its Personal Property, if any, diminution in value of its operation, leasehold value and for Lessee's moving expenses and Lessee's business interruption, if any. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Landlord agrees that it shall not acquire Lessee's leasehold interest by eminent domain during the term of this Lease.

26. Waivers. The waiver by either party of any breach of any term, condition, or provision herein contained shall not be deemed to be a waiver of such term, condition, or provision herein contained.

27. Termination.

A. In the event that Lessee shall be in default of the payment of rent or any other amount due and owing under this Lease for a period of ten (10) days following written notice of such default from Landlord, or if Lessee shall fail or neglect to do or perform or observe any of the other covenants or agreements contained in this Lease on its part to be kept or performed, and such failure and neglect shall continue for a period of not less than thirty (30) days after Landlord has notified Lessee in writing of Lessee's default, and Lessee has failed to correct such default within said ten (10) day or thirty (30) day period, whichever is applicable, then Landlord may terminate this Lease.

B. In the event Landlord is in default of any of its covenants or agreements contained in this Lease, and such failure and neglect shall continue for a period of not less than thirty (30) days after Lessee has notified Landlord in writing of Landlord's default, and Landlord has failed to correct such default within said thirty (30) day period, then Lessee may terminate this Lease.

C. Upon expiration or within thirty (30) days after earlier termination or mutual cancellation of this Lease, Lessee shall turn over to Landlord the Property in good and serviceable condition, damage by the elements and ordinary wear and tear excepted. If Lessee fails to surrender the Property within said thirty (30) days period, then Landlord may lawfully at its option, immediately or at any time thereafter, without demand or notice, enter into and upon the Property and in the name of the whole, repossess the same of its former estate, and expel Lessee, and those claiming by, through, or under Lessee, and remove their effects, if any, without prejudice to any remedy which otherwise might be used, for arrears, or rent, or other preceding breach of covenant. If Lessee fails to surrender the Property to Landlord as required by this Section, Lessee shall hold Landlord harmless for all damages resulting from Lessee's failure to surrender the Property.

D. If Lessee, with Landlord's express consent, remains in possession of the Property after the expiration or earlier termination of the term (including the initial term and any extended term), or after the date in any notice given by Landlord to Lessee terminating this Lease, such possession by Lessee shall be deemed to be a month-to-month tenancy terminable on 30 days' notice given at any time by either party. During such month-to-month tenancy, the rent required to be paid hereunder shall be increased by 50% over the rent of the last month prior to the expiration or earlier termination of the Lease, or such other amount as mutually agreed upon by the parties. Lessee shall pay such rent and all other sums required to be paid hereunder monthly on or before the first day of each month. All other provisions of this Lease except those pertaining to the term shall apply to the month-to-month tenancy.

E. No expiration or termination of this Lease (except as expressly provided herein) and no repossession of the Property or any part thereof shall relieve Lessee of its liabilities and obligations hereunder, all of which shall survive such expiration, termination or repossession, and Landlord may, at its option, sue for and collect all rent and other charges due hereunder at any time as when such charges accrue. In the event Landlord commences any suit for the repossession of the Property, for the recovery of rent or any other amount due under the provisions of this Lease, or because of the breach of any other covenant herein contained on the part of the Lessee to be kept or performed, and a breach shall be established, Lessee shall pay to Landlord reasonable expenses incurred in connection therewith, including reasonable attorneys' fees.

28. Estoppel Certificate by Lessee. After the commencement of this Lease, Lessee shall, upon request by Landlord, execute and deliver to Landlord within five (5) business days of such request, a written certification in recordable form: (a) ratifying this Lease; (b) setting forth the commencement date and expiration date; (c) certifying that Lessee is in occupancy of the Property; (d) certifying that this Lease is in full force and effect; (e) certifying that all conditions under this Lease to be performed by Landlord have been completed, or specifying the reasons if such is not the case; (f) certifying that there are no defenses or offsets against the enforcement of this Lease by Landlord; and (g) certifying any additional information that Landlord may reasonably request. Such certification shall be executed and delivered by Lessee as may from time to time be requested by Landlord, and shall entitle Landlord's mortgage lenders and/or purchasers to rely upon same. Lessee hereby appoints Landlord as Lessee's attorney-in-fact to execute any such estoppel certificate in the event Lessee does not execute and return such certificate within the time period set forth above.

29. Successors and Assigns. The terms, conditions, and provisions herein contained shall, subject to the provisions as to assignments, apply to and bind the heirs, successors, administrators, executors, and assigns of all the parties hereto.

30. Notices. All notices, demands, requests, consents, or approvals which may or are required to be given by either party to the other shall be in writing and shall be deemed given when sent by United States First-Class Mail, postage prepaid, or by reputable overnight delivery service or personal delivery (a) if for Lessee, addressed to Lessee at the Property, or at such other place as Lessee may from time to time designate by notice to Landlord; or (b) if for Landlord, addressed to the City of El Paso de Robles, 1000 Spring Street, Paso Robles, CA 93446, Attn: City Manager, or at such other place as Landlord may from time to time designate by notice to Lessee. All consents and approvals provided for herein must be in writing to be valid. If the term "Lessee" as used in this Lease refers to more than one person, any notice, consent, approval, request, bill, demand or statement given as aforesaid to any one of such persons shall be deemed to have been duly given to Lessee.

31. Brokerage. Lessee represents and warrants that it has dealt with no broker, agent or other person in connection with this transaction and that no broker, agent or other person brought about this transaction, and Lessee agrees to defend with counsel acceptable to Landlord, indemnify and hold Landlord harmless from and against and all claims by any other broker, agent or other person claiming a commission or other form of compensation by virtue of having dealt with Lessee with regarding to this leasing transaction. The provisions of this subsection shall survive the termination of this Lease.

32. Miscellaneous.

A. The section headings of this Lease are for convenience only and are not a part of this Lease and do not in any way limit or amplify the terms and provisions of this Lease.

B. If any of the provisions of this Lease or the application thereof to any person or circumstances shall, to any extent, be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Lease, or the application of such provision or provisions to persons or circumstances other than those as to whom or which it is held invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and every provision of this Lease shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

C. Neither party has made any representations or covenants, except as contained herein, or in some further writing signed by the party making such representation or promise. All prior communications or understandings, oral or written, between Landlord and Lessee are superseded by this Lease and this Lease contains the entire agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter of this Lease, and shall not be amended, modified or supplemented unless by agreement in writing, signed by both parties.

D. Lessee shall look solely to the Property and rents derived therefrom for enforcement of any obligations hereunder or by law assumed or enforceable against Landlord, and no other property or other assets of Landlord shall be subjected to levy, execution or other enforcement procedure for the satisfaction of Lessee's remedies or with respect to this Lease, the relationship of Landlord and Lessee hereunder or Lessee's use and occupancy of the Property.

E. This Lease may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, and all of which shall constitute one and the same instrument.

F. Time is of the essence of every provision of this Lease.

G. A memorandum of this Lease shall be recorded.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have hereto executed this agreement in duplicate on the day and year first above written.
