CALL TO ORDER

DISCUSSION

1. Earthquake Recovery & Downtown Vision Workshop

R. Lata, Community Development Director

Citizens, property and business owners, community organizations, design professionals, interested public, advisory bodies, Planning Commission, and City Council will all be encouraged to actively participate in a discussion regarding what has happened as a result of the December 22 earthquake and how the City can best move forward. The San Luis Obispo Council of Governments and Cal Poly SLO are participating and providing program support. The meeting will be facilitated by John Dunn.

The first workshop on February 19 will focus on seeking public input on a wide range of related topics; the second workshop on March 4 will explore options based on input received on February 19, 2004, and will begin the process of determining future plans for reconstruction, particularly as related to buildings that are slated for demolition and other structures that were impacted by the earthquake.

Mayor Mecham opened the public hearing. Speaking from the public were Dale Gustin, Chuck Mendelson, Nick Ferravanti, Elyssa Williams, Anita Robinson, Wayne Harris, Danielle Asaprielle, Pierre Rademaker, Nick Gilman, Grace Pucci, Lee Agon, Sammy Nemeth, Norma Moye, Bruce Baird, Frank Armitage, Jim Saunders, Kathy Barnett, Walt Macklin, Claire Macklin, Anita Robinson, Bill Nielson, Catherine Minx, Barbara Rowland, Editha Spencer, Virginia Harris, Kate Chase, Jaylin Wier, Dan Jones, Ted Elder, Mr. Spencer, Brenden Maderos, Kate Chase, John Bertoni, Marilyn Curry, Easton Lee Wolf, Barry Kinman, Sam Benepedes, Bill Nielson, Lou Espizido, and Anita Robinson. There being no further comments from the public, either written or oral, the public discussion was closed.

After closing comments from John Dunn, by general consensus, Council and Planning Commission adjourned from regular session at 9:25 PM.
