 What do you do now?
 A—Your partner's three-spade call was evidently a cue bid.
 Your only problem is to decide between a six-diamond and a five-diamond call. We slightly prefer six diamonds but would not criticize five.

 Answer tomorrow

Frank Eberhardt has good reason to frequently glance the skyward while he's out in his yard.
 Eberhardt says as many as 25 golf balls a day have been landing at his home near the third hole of the Bing Maloney Golf Course. He estimates that about 6,000 balls have landed on his house or in his yard since ago. "There are a lot of duffers out there, I guess," he said.
 Eberhardt, a non-golfer, said he was struck on the arm by a ball while sitting near his house several years ago and fears his wife may be next.

 It doesn't require any great bidding skill to get to three no-trump with the orth-south cards. The bid-ing in the box shows the mple, straightforward way get there.
 With two five-card suits, orth opens with the higher rking one. You don't go it of your way to reverse, show strength. A reverse id shows strength and when ou reverse with touching its like diamonds and ubs it indicates that the ub suit is longer.
 North's hand is strong ough for a forcing jump id in his second suit and uth rebids to three no-ump. South might have ven a preference to three ards but the last thing uth wanted was to get past e three no-trump level.
