

SECTION 21.20.430 TO CHAPTER 21.20,
CITY OF EL PASO,
REQUIRING SPECIAL REGULATORY

That Section 21.20.430 -
Provisions and Section 6.70
read as follows:

SECTION I
Uses Requiring Special Regulatory

Because of the temporary nature and unique aspects of certain activities, special regulatory provisions are hereby established for the following:

Rummage Sales. Rummage sales are expressly prohibited within the city limits, except when conducted by a charitable or nonprofit organization with a completed enclosed permit of an existing church, social hall, school, clubhouse, auditorium, recreation building, or theater.

Garage Sales. Garage sales may be conducted at family residences, throughout the city, provided that the merchandise, which has been placed on sale, is the result of the normal accumulation of used items acquired by a single family, and is not in any way connected with an established business, each and provided that the occupants of a family residence shall be limited to a total of two (2) of a family per year, each having a duration of no more than two (2) consecutive days. Signs advertising garage sales shall not be posted on public property.

Permit Required. Rummage sales and garage sales shall be allowed only after application has been made to hold said activity and a permit has been issued by the License Administrator.

Permit Fee. For all applications under this section, the License Administrator shall collect a fee of $1.00, except for applications issued to charitable or non-profit organizations.

PASSED, APPROVED AND ADOPTED this 23rd day of October, 1975, by the following roll call vote:
AYES: Councilmen Barnhart, Hanson, Minshull, Stockdale
