

RESOLUTION NO. 90-53

A RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL
OF THE CITY OF PASO ROBLES
CANCELING THE EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICES CONTRACT WITH THE COUNTY OF SAN LUIS OBISPO

- WHEREAS, the City may have adopted an agreement with the County of San Luis Obispo around 1976; for ambulance service to the County; and
- WHEREAS, the EMS Contract would be automatically renewed for an additional five year period unless the County is notified of the intent to cancel one year in advance; and
- WHEREAS, the existing EMS contract does not provide for city input into county ambulance ordinance changes or changes to the Emergency Medical Response Manual (EMRM); nor does the contract allow for city input on ambulance transport charges; and
- WHEREAS, since the 1976 contract was signed numerous changes have been made without City input and
- WHEREAS, the changes to the EMS contract have a direct affect on the ambulance service level to the City; and
- WHEREAS, the City Managers and City Fire Chiefs of San Luis Obispo County have reviewed all city/county EMS contracts regarding ambulance service levels and found the existing contracts to be lacking provisions for local input and require modification; and
- WHEREAS, it is important to maintain local control and have input into how ambulance services are delivered to a city and at what cost; and
- WHEREAS, population, service demands and county-wide changes have occurred since the contract was originally signed; and

WHEREAS, it is essential to review and update emergency medical services with the involvement of municipal government on local control issues.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the City Council of the City of Paso Robles notifies the County of San Luis Obispo that the City intends to cancel its current City/County EMS contract effective immediately and directs city staff to evaluate the emergency medical service levels and negotiate a new EMS contract as necessary.
